RAILROAD ACCIDENTS .- On Thanksgiving eveing, an accident occurred on the Louisville and Frankfort railroad, seven miles from the city, which might have proven of the greatest fatality. Shortly after six o'clock, a hog train of twenty. one cars encountered a cross-tie at the cow-gap, near Washburne's. Some villain had placed the bstruction on the track. The locomotive was brown off, but not much damaged. About fifty yards of the track were torn up, five or six cars were utterly demolished, and twenty hogs killed. Several persons on the train rarrowly escaped with their lives. Mr. Nixon was hurt in the breast slightly, and Mr. True, a hog dealer from Fayette, had his leg broken. The down passenger train, that night, was de ained, and did not reach the city until 11 o'clock. Trains, yesterday, were slightly detained, but uperintendent Gill had a strong force at work, and the road will be in perfect order this morning. There was an accident, Tuesday night, to the og train on the Nashville road, at Gap-in-the-Knob. About one hundred and twenty-five hogs

That there is much prejudice to wards our Catholic fellow-citizens, because of their faith, there is no doubt, and it was the lecturer's aim to show that these prejudices were, in ome time since in the New York Herald :- "No the main, ill-grounded. They arose, said he, first nan, we will venture to say, in the whole annals from false tradition; that is, that an imagined days of Luther, and handed down from age to or gained in a short space of time more converts | age, acquired at our day the force of truth. In establishment of this ground the lecturer referred to the works of Maitland, and others, Protestant researchers, who had the courage and fairness to grapple with some of these popular prejudices, and tracing them back step by step, succeeded in finding that what seemed to be sanctioned by the united Protestant voice is authentic, owed its origin to one man, and that man, perhaps, a bitter and unscrupulous partisan. His other points were that of "superficial observation" and "wilful misrepresentations." He contended that letter-writers from Catholic very superficial and inadequate knowledge of that which formed the subject of their pen. He com plained on the score of wilful misrepresentation and of the reluctance which the partisan press seemingly manifested in doing justice to Cathopoke as though his soul was in the subject, and his apparent candor and fairness could not fail to win the hearts of his hearers. Not a harsh word against Protestantism escaped his lips. He pleaded only for those whom by these prejudices he onceived to be wronged.

We understand that the lecturer goes hence t St. Louis, and that upon his return our citizens will have another opportunity of hearing him.

THEATER.—The fine weather last evening permitted the ladies to come cut again, and these with their brave gallants, and others who were not so fortunate, favored Mrs. Florence with their presence for her benefit, last night. The theater was filled to overflowing. The pieces played were the "Irish Lion," "How to Get out of It, or the Irish Free Lover," (by Doesticks,) and the "Yankee Housekeeper." Doesticks' piece is a apital thing, and kept the audience in a roar of aughter. It bears the impress of Doesticks, bu is slightly Florenceized by the sprightly young actor of that name, with the pre fix of "Bill." His "Lunnigan Maguire is one of his best parts. Mrs. Florence sustained five different characters, and was par tivularly good as the dutch woman, and as the danseuse. She dances with apparent ease and infinite grace. Her songs, which are ever eccentric, were also heartily encored. The good acting of Mrs. Dickson and Mrs. Gilbert, contributed also to the success of the piece. The latter lady is a most excellent actress, and always deserves the highest praise. We doubt that any actress on the stage, with the same experience, is her equal. We repeat the Irish Free Lover is a de cided success.

To-night's bill consists of "Ireland as it Is," an "Mischievous Annie." Mrs. Florence plays half dozen different parts in the latter.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN CITIZENS .- We have the painful announcement to make of the decease of Wm. Murton, Esq., who died, yesterday, at the residence of his mother, on Fifth street, after a very brief illness. The deceased was a native of this city, and though young in years, had already established a most enviable business reputation. He was active, energetic, and full of promise. It is sad that, in the midst of a bright career, he was thus stricken down in youth and the buoyancy of life. Mr. Murton, a few years since, visited Europe Returning, he became one of the firm of Evarts & Murton, and only a short month since established a house for himself, on Main street. When one thus, in the very strength of manhood, is taken from our business circles, it is melancholy to reflect upon the uncertainty of life. SOUTHERN & NATIONAL DEMOCRACY!!

THE VOICE OF KENTUCKY. THE ADMINISTRATION OF PRESIDENT BUCHANAN APPROVED AND SUSTAINED! We publish below the resolution adopted at each of forty political meetings already held in Kentucky, indorsing the administration of President Buchanan. The unprecedented unanimity with which this resolution has run through these meetings, leaves no doubt of the sentiment of Kentucky, and indicates that a similar resolution will run through other meetings, yet to be holden in the State. These resolutions show that Kentucky is true to the President, to the national Denocracy, to the South, and to the Union. Her ons, who hold the power of the majority within her borders, are not to be led astray by the crazy sms of Northern fanaticism. These resolutions have been adopted without effort in this State, and are consequently the outbursts of the great opular heart. Democratic Kentucky will not oin an unscrupulous opposition, consisting of Black Republicans, Know Nothings, Freesoilers, ree lovers, free niggers, etc., whose aim is to break lown the administration of James Buchanan, because it is true to the South as well as the North, and mindful of the union, as a whole, in preference to either isolated section of this confederacy f sovereign States. While, however, our Democracy indorse the President, they do not, by eparate resolution, condemn Douglas. They eave that great man to stand where he is, until the past course of Douglas is concerned, if his future is all right. We publish these resolutions in the order of ime in which they were adopted. Trimble couny spoke out first, Henry next, and so on in the rder in which we give them, until a chorus of orty voices, in counties entitled to cast 287 votes n the 8th of January convention, approved of the administration of James Buchanan.

Democratic Meeting in Scott County. Democratic Meeting in Scott County.
Pursuant to a public notice, the Democracy of Scott county assembled at the court house in Georgetown, on Monday, the 15th inst., (county court day,) to appoint delegates to the State convention. On motion, Col. Remus Payne was called to the Chair, and John A. Bell appointed Seeretary. The object of the meeting was explained by the Chairman, and the following gentlemen appointed a committee to draft resolutions: Dr. Paul Rankins, Geo. W. Johnson, Dr. E. H. Black, and Ed. F. Cantrill. The committee, his future is known. The resolutions clearly indicate that by-gones will be by-gones, so far as tions: Dr. Paul Rankins, Geo. W. Johnson, Dr. E. H. Black, and Ed. F. Cantrill. The committee, through Dr. Rankins, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

1. That in view of the present condition of the political parties of the nation, and the dangerous and unconstitutional tenets of the Abolition party, we consider it the highest duty of every patriot in the Union to rally to the support of the Democratic party as the only national party now existing, capable of resisting the usurpation and dictation of the leaders of this northern band of fanatics and traitors.

and dictation of the leaders of this northern band of fa-latics and traitors.

Murders and Juries.

In an article published on Saturday last, we contended that the notorious mockery of criminal justice, in this State, as the same is seen in cer. tain farcical exhibitions in our courts, is mainly owing to the juries. Our purpose is not to waste time, either in merely pointing out, or censuring these delinquencies. We seek to discover, if possible, the source of the evil, its nature, and extent, that some remedy may be applied.

Before appeals were allowed in cases punished was impossible to attain to uniformity of decision in the courts throughout the State. It is known that, in some districts, at one time, slaves were allowed the benefit of clergy in certain cases, and, in other districts, it was denied; that dying declarations were received as evidence in some and rejected in others; that parties united in the same indictment were competent witnesses for each other, on separate trials, in some and not in others. Other cases of a want of uniformity could be given, but such an enumeration is not essential to to the matter in hand. Why this strange state of affairs was so long submitted to, is now a thing of wonder. The people often cried out that the lawyers had controlled the legis lation of the country, and fixed or unfixed the law and the practice of the courts, that they might reap a harvest of fees in the multiplication of crime. This charge may not be true in all its breadth, yet it cannot be denied that the legal men often and effectually pressed upon courts and juries the great responsibility resting on them, by reason of their judgments and findings not being subject to revision by a higher court. The commonwealth was often denounced as a bloody tyrant who permitted no appeal where life and liberty were involved, and allowed it for the killing of a dog. It is susceptible of proof, too, that some who held this language, always opposed the right of appeal, and it is certain that the right was sought and granted from popular impulse, in spite of professional opposition. In truth, though lawyers may know best how to shape and apply reforms in the law, they are less likely than any other class to originate or advise posed the right of appeal, and it is certain that likely than any other class to originate or advise them. At last, however, the failure of criminal justice, growing out of the want of appeal, has been removed, and an increased responsibility de- robs it, he says he worked for the spoils. volved upon juries by their inability to acquit by the fault of the court. It beloaves upon the fault of the court is the fault of the court. It beloaves upon the fault of the court is the fault of the court. It beloaves upon the fault of the court is the fault of the court. It beloaves upon the fault of the court is the fault of the court is the fault of the court. It beloaves upon the fault of the court is the f the fault of the court. It behooves us, then, to look more narrowly than ever into the jury sys- whole party to bail in $300 each for six months. as well to see if it needs not other referms, as to discover remedies for acknowledged evils.

One preliminary matter may well engage our careful attention. Juries are continually told in Kentucky that, if they entertain a rational doubt of the guilt of the accused, they must acquit, without being duly or at all informed of their exact line of duty. Now, there is scarcely a transaction in life which, as a moral fact, does not admit of a rational doubt-that is to say, to doubt which implies that a man is irrational or insane. The proper phrase is "reasonable doubt." The etymological distinction between the two words may be nice, but there certainly is a difference, and the former is certainly the stronger word. "Reasonable doubt" is not only the expression found in our criminal code, but that commonly, nay, almost universally, used in approved text books and decisions. But what is a reasonable doubt? Is there any distinction in this regard between civil and criminal cases? Such a distinction has certainly been recognized, and is often mentioned in the books; but as a matter of law does it really exist? Bennett & Heard, the learned authors of "Leading Criminal Cases," favor the negative. See 1 vol., 359. Assuming that, as a law question, the distinction is well founded, is it sanctioned by sound reason and good policy? As a rule it must promote justice or injustice; if the former, then its application can not be too widely extended, and if the latter, it can not be to speedily or thoroughly abolished. But it may be said that more evidence should be required to deprive one of life or liberty than of property-that life or liberty is inestimably more precious than worldly goods. It might as well be said that one dollar is of no consequence as compared with a million, and, therefore, the evidence should be stronger which would deprive one of the latter than of the former. This last, at least, can not be admitted as true in theory or in fact, and yet it rests on the same basis as the alleged distinction between civil and criminal cases. "The common law is the perfection of human reason," is boast fully said by its disciples. If so, it can not sanction a distinction which works injustice, or fail to apply universally one that is promotive of justice. Unjustly to deprive one of a cent, may not be so deep a wrong as unjustly to take away his life or liberty, but either is wrong, and a system which sanctions either, is so far erroneous. We nsist, therefore, that, as a matter of law and of sound jurisprudence, in civil and criminal cases alike, the jury should never find for the plaintiff or Commonwealth, unless a case is made out beyond a reasonable doubt, or that they should so find upon that proponderance of proof which ought reasonably to satisfy an unbiased man of the propriety of such a finding. The proof which ought to and does satisfy such a man out of the jury box, ought to have the same effect in it. We do not forget that the law presumes innocence until guilt is proved; but, perhaps, others are not sufficiently mindful that the same law presumes the defendant is not guilty of the wrong of withholding from the plaintiff what is justly due to him, and throws apon the latter the burthen of proving the justice of his complaint. In what we have said of "reasonable doubt," there was no intention to excuse or palliate the misdoings of juries, growing out of the rule, as generally understood and applied in Kentucky, or as growing out of its ambiguity. There is no question that knavish juries make it a mere cloak for villainous acquittals, which spring only from their own corrupt hearts. Perhaps this is the very strongest reason for legislative interposition, if the courts consider themselves irrefragi bly fettered by this "rusty curb of old father antic-the law." Remove the wretched pretext, and let corruption stand forth in naked enormity. One other topic requires to be noticed before we enter on the consideration of our jury system in criminal cases. Under our old constitution, in all cases, and upon any application, the legislature would grant a change of venue to any cul- FAMILY SEWING MACHINES, prit, and the more atrocious his crime, the more eadily was the change granted, Nay, the very fact that the crime was supremely atrocious, and of a character to call for the most condign punishment, was considered an omnipotent reason for legislative interposition. This power, so wantonly abused, was taken away by the new constitution as to particular cases—alas, that it was not totally abolished!—and the legislature was required to abolished—and the legislature was required to act by general laws. Truly, the gentlemen of the long robe have avenged themselves of their enemies, the people. We are worse off now than ever. We complained of King Log, and King Stork has been sent in his stead. The legislation and nower of refusal, though sadly abused, but our courts virtually have, and venue in any penal or criminal case? To say that any criminal ever arraigned in Kentucky, could tention of increasing an acknowledged evil. Let the law and the administration of the law be confined to such cases. The people among and against whom a crime is committed, are the proper parties to punish it. They alone have that aterest in having punishment inflicted, which can overcome man's natural repugnance to inflict pain. A distant amunity has no such feeling, or one enfeebled Chicago, Springfield, Decatur and the principal by the remoteness of place and political association. What matters it to us whether a California Trains on this route form close connection at culprit is punished or not? The common law sanctions no such outrage, and so far, at least, its boasted perfection is well claimed.

While holding that a change of venue should never be granted, unless it is apparent to all reasonable men that a fair trial can not be had in the county where the crime was committed, and that such a trial can be had in the county to which it can be had at the clerk's desk at five cents per is proposed to transfer the case, we by no means apologize for those wicked juries who falsify their oaths, and shame all propriety, by such acquittals as often follow the change. Let Gehenna be their portion here and hereafter.

In another article we will close what we have o say on our subject, and note such changes as we think should be made in existing laws-well pleased if popular attention is aroused and legislative wisdom stimulated, that innocent blood shall not forever continue to cry out against us afresh. We call upon the law-abiding and our brethren of the press, especially the religious by confinement in the penitentiary, or death, it press, to come up to the help of the Lord against the mighty.

[Reported Expressly for the Louisville Courier.] POLICE COURT. GEORGE W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE.

FRIDAY, Nov. 26. DRUNK AND DISORDERLY—CARRYING A CONCEAL-ED WEAPON.—Jas. McCue, a sort of hackman, was presented on the above charges. Officer Seav arrested him about midnight, finding him in an uproarious way, and had a dirk in his pocket.—Bail of $100 was required to answer indictment. Drunk And Noisy.—Marion Rowland and Jas. Underwood were presented on the charge of rising a disturbance in the theater, caused by bad whister of the charge of course. A row had been raised with John Duff, the door keeper, and this pair was taken up. Bail of $200 was required of each for their good behavior six months.

ANOTHER DRUNKEN PAIR. - Miles Dolan, sir, and ANOTHER DRUKEN FAIR.—Miles Dolan, sir, and Mary Dolan, his wife, were once more to the fore on the same old charges, getting drunk and fighting each other, to the great annoyance of the watch. Bad whisky had made her as pale as a ghost, a certain sign that it was fast destroying ife. She was turned out, and Miles was held to bail in $200 for 3 months. He had acknowledged to wiping her nose with his first. Suspected Felons.—James Dolan, John McGee, and Theodore Jerrolds, all three young men, were presented as suspected felons, following no laudable pursuits, but prowling the streets and keeping bad company. All the police testified that Dolan was a thief by profession, and was acquainted with all the traveled thieves of the country, and bassted of his proficiency. terms of the fancy, they are mechanics and work-men, all—that is, if one steals a watch, he says he made it, and if another breaks into a house and Overcome Again.—Mrs. Collins was found or the floor, in somebody elses ouse, and was sent to the cave till April.

DISORDERLY AGAIN AND ABUSIVE.—Sam. Har onn was again up fer disorderly conduct and monn was again up for disorderly conduct and assaulting his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ferguson. Bail of $100 was required to answer indictment.

Ordinance Warrants.—A young man, firing a gun or pistol on the streets, was fined $4. Capt. Dravo, of the Mariner, was presented fo committing the heinous sin of landing at the wharf and refusing to pay wharfage. A fine of $10 was ordered to be imposed. Other ordinance cases were continued to next

The Lexington Municipal Election.

The subjoined nominations for municipal officers to be filled by popular election on the first Saturday in January next, were made with the unanimous voice of a Democratic meeting held in this city on Saturday evening last. We congratulate our friends upon the selection of gentlemen so eminently qualified and capable. For each office a candidate is presented, worthy, competent and a candidate is presented, worthy, competent, and deserving. Nor is this all: the ticket combines, a our opinion, certain elements of success.

We regret to learn that it is possible other enagements may compel the gentleman selected as candidate for mayor to decline the nomination. Sat this is yet a mere apprehension which may not be justified. We hope the ticket may go to the people at it is presented—it could not be im-

-Lexington Statesman HEALTHY CITY .- In the last three weeks only five deaths have occurred in Norfolk, Va., a city with a population of 20,000; and to this the Herald adds, that only once in 33 years has the mortality there exceeded 2 per cent per annum.

Age AND DEBILITY .- As old age comes creeping on, orings many attendant infirmities. Loss of appetite and weakness impair the health, and want of activity makes the mind discontented and unhappy. In case where old age adds its influence, it is almost impessible to add vigor and health, and although many remedies have been tried, all have failed, until BERHAVE'S HOL-LAND BITTERS were known and used. In every case where they have been employed they have invariably given strength and restored the appetite. They have become a great agent for this alone, and are used by many people who are suffering from loss of appetite and general debility. In cases of long standing chronic diseases, they act as a charm, invigorating the system, hus giving nature another opportunity to repair phys n22 d8 M W & F &w1-48

JAMES SLOAN. FOR SALE OR HENT—The subscriber being anxious to remove to Texas, is desirous of disposing of his Farm, containing 116 acres of good rich land, with Dwelling and out buildings, and good water. Will be sold together or in lots to suit purchasers, or would be exchanged for approved Texas lands. This land lies near the terminus of the Dunkirk road, 3 miles from Louisville, on the Ohio river, fronting on the first deep water below Portland, where shipments can be made at any stage of water, and would be a fine site for a ship yard, and certainly presents a very rare opportunity for those wishing to purchase a beautiful and healthy home in the country. For gardners and those wishing to cultivate land for the Louisville market, it presents great advantages, as it is near town, and on a good dirt road.

dislocated, bending the toe backward in the form of an arch. He was speedily removed into the Astor Place Hotel. The injury will detain Gen. Paez some days from his journey, but no other serious result may be feared.

Gen. Paez has determined to embark on Saturday. The Times says that he has an extensive contusion, and it is impossible to decide at present as to what may be the ultimate results. If inflammation should be extensive, it may cause loss of the parts. The wound is more dangerous on account of the advanced age of the General, although he has in his favor an excellent constitution and great physical strength.

The military and people are celebrating the 77th anniversary of the evacuation of this city by the British forces, and the display is magnificent.—Gen. Paez reviewed the troops, the horse guards acting as his especial escort. There is also a general turn out of the fire department to attend the funeral of ex-Chief Anderson. The weather is splendid.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY, Sole Agents for Kentucky and Indiana. NUNNS & CLARK'S Improved New Scale Planos are so well and favorably known in this market, and throughout the whole country, to be SUPERIOR in the tone, and durability, and they speak so well for maselves, that they need no word of commendation we any one.

from any one. HAINES BROTHERS' PIANOS are new Pianos in this narket, but they are well known in many sections of the country as an A No. 1 instrument. Competent judges who have tried them pronounce them fully equal, if not superior, to the Steinsay & Son's Pianos. They are a beautiful, highly finished instrument, and we can sell them at three-fourths the price of a Chickering Piano, as we do not have to pay anything for their name or reputation. We still keep a full supply of the New and Improved Scale of Chickering & Son's Grand, Paulor Grand, and Square Pianos, and as we are Cash Dealers in them, we can sell them ususually low for cash. We have also several other makes of Pianos, all of which we warrant ogive perfect satisfaction. We respectfully invite strangers visiting the city during the Fair, and all others in want of Pianos, to call and examine our complete stock, for we are selling exceedingly low for cash. FEVER AND AGUE, STOMACH OR LIVER,

STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bieeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuraigic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on scrictly scientific principles after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE—Whoever expects to find this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a greatful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

CAUTION: The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has inluced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Beerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

Sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by the ACTION OF THE MEETING!!!

AFTERNOON SESSION The stockholders of the Southern Pacific Railroad met, pursuant to notice, at the Masonic Temple, in the city of Louisville, Kentucky, Thursday afternoon, November 25th, at 3 o'clock. the entire stock of the company.

Col. F. Gorin, of Kentucky, called the meeting to order, and nominated Hon. Jeremiah Morton, of Va., as president. Mr. Morton was elected by acclamation. On taking the chair, he spoke as Gentlemen Stockholders: I thank you for the honor conferred upon me. The interests you have to consider and protect are great to you, our country, and mankind. Meet the crisis with wis-dom, energy, nerve and liberality, and the clouds which have overshadowed our company will be dispelled, and the destiny of the Southern Pacific dispelled, and the destiny of the Southern Facilic Railroad, connecting oceans and continents, will be greater than any other on earth. I shall en-deavor to do my duty, but with little experience as a presiding officer, must look to you for indulgent support.

On the motion of Col. Edwin Post, of N. York, the following seven vice presidents were appointed: Dr. James Shannon, of Missouri; Col. Frank Goric, of Kentucky; Col. Edwin Post, of New York; Col. R. H. Russell, of Texas; Col. John Carpenter, of California; W. B. Fentress, of Tennessee, and J. M. Conwall, of Obio.

Col. Gorin moved that John Delafield, of St. Louis; Jacob Swigert, of Frankfort, and R. T. Durrett, of Louisville, be elected secretaries, which was done.

The report of Dr. Jeptha Fowlkes, the presi dent of the Southern Pacific R. R. Company, was then read. It is a masterly piece of composition, throwing a flood of light upon the condition and prospects of the enterprise. We give the full report below, and, though lengthy, it will be read with more than ordinary interest by the countless friends and well-wishers who are interested in the LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 25, 1858

To the Stockholders of the S uthern Pacific Rail road, of Texas, here assembled in Convention: GENTLENEN-We are again convened to delib erate upon matters of grave importance. Since your last adjournment, much has happened which it is my pleasure, as well as my duty, to submit to you; and I beg to indicate herein also a line of policy, the successful prosecution of which I regard as effective in results of most se-rious weight—serious to yourselves, so far as it affects mere pecuniary gain—serious, however, to the cause of your children, your neighbors, and your country, in the early completion of one of the most stupendous enterprises of the world at the present day. In this time of profound peace, our eminent statesmen have been attracted to an inter-oceanic communication between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, by railway, as the first paramount duty of our government.

Well did Senator Douglas, in his speech of April 17th, last, say, "I believe it is a great national measure. I believe it is the greatest practical measure before the country. I believe that we have arrived at that period in our history when our great, substantial interests require it The interests of commerce—the great interests of travel and communication—those still greater in-terests that build the Union together, and are to make and preserve the continent as one and indi-visible—all demand that this road shall be commenced, prosecuted, and completed at the earliest practicable moment." Well did he also add, "I care not whether you look at it in a commercial point of view, as a matter of administrative economy at home, as a question of military defense, or in reference to the building up of the national wealth, and power, and glory—it is the great measure of the age.'

Has not the present Administration, too, anticipated your action, in its last message to Congress, and confirmed your views, by the present advan-tages and facilities afforded to Mr. Butterfield's overland mail route, which traverses your pro-posed line of road through Fort Belknap to El Paso and onwards? And what did not the able report of the Hon. Postmaster General, Aaron V. Brown, represent? The clearness of his fore-sight has been fully institud by the rought. sight has been fully justified by the result.

I have observed from the reports by parties who have recently traveled across the overland denoral account ren mail route from St. Louis to San Francisco, that Accounts unsattled.

H. Richland...... the United States mail is now regularly carried by coaches over the contemplated route of the Southern Pacific railroad, for a distance of five hun dred and thirty-nine miles in Texas, viz: From Fort Belknap to Fort Chadbourne 136 miles, from Fort Chadbourne to Pecos river 165 miles, from Pecos river to Pope's Camp 66 miles, from Pope's Camp to El Paso 172 miles—total, 589 miles. The route adopted, known as the present Butterfield overland mail route, shows clearly the judgment and foresight of the contractors in the selection of the same, and the wisdom of the present Administration approving and adopting it.

It is true three several lines of route are proposed. From what is hereinafter said on tha point in its proper place, it will be seen that in the views I entertain, no undue advantage in favor of our route finds place. There will be business for all, and more than all can accomplish. Take, for instance, St. Louis, with many roads to the Atlantic; she can not, as at present provided, equal the rapid transit of freight and passengers demanded. Where do you see a railway be tween prominent points that is not overcrowded with freight and passengers? Indeed, gentlemen, by the plighted faith of the State of Texas, and her patriotic efforts and mu-nificent offers, you have been largely prompted to invest money, reasonably looking to a profitable return, and as a safe investment of it as stable form of capital in the Southern Pacific Railroad. But "it is human to err,"—we may err. In this case we have not done so, but on the contrary, others may. This is an individual, not a corporate, matter only. No sooner was all your money paid in them men pretending to respect. money paid in, thau men, pretending to respecta-bility, and some even claiming to be your agents, sought in a disreputable manner, (to say the least) by legal chicanery, to divest you of every cent you have paid in. They well foresaw the ap-proaching necessity of government in complet-ing so great an enterprize. They had all to gain, out nothing to lose, and staked their characters on the hazard of the cast against your rights.

These matters have heretofore been laid before you as they then existed, up to August and Sep-tember last. You then were pleased to confirm and sustain me in a position of great responsibil-ity, and, I may add, of even personal peril, from exposure in the frail condition of my health, and incessant vigilance of the continued unscrupulous conduct of that few. With the exception of some excellent gentlemen, to whom I hereinafter beg to pay a proper tribute of respect, I have been com-pelled, at heavy expenses and payments of my conspiracy, or combination, to obtain your rights, without an equivalent, and without your knowledge, as I have ever known to exist.

I now submit the history of what occurred from the date of your last meeting until now.

I am frank to arow that the spirit and deter-mination manifested through the South and West at our late autumnal meetings encouraged and nerved me in my resistance to the wrong and in the defence and establishment of the right. Carrying out the spirit thus indicated by your carrying out the spirit thus indicated by your unanimity of action in many places, by correspondence and personal interviews, I left my home at Memphis, Tenn., on the 22d day of September, on an overland journey to Marshall, Harrison co., Texas, intending to be in time for the court then in session. I reached there safely. We had caused an action to be brought in that court in order to vacate the invalid sale of your property and franchises, and replace in possession of your offitails of the affairs of the company, and the accused an action to be brought in that court in order to vacate the invalid sale of your property and franchises, and replace in possession of your officers.

I regret that want of means sufficient to employ suitable clerks, and of access to your records, has property and adversely to you by these men, who, under their pretended sale, claimed to own your estate there in a diller that the entire of the sale, claimed to own your estate there in a diller that your privileges and property acquired by your money, etc. In my state of health, with a natural predisposition to the diseases of that climate, nothing but a confidence in the triumph of right over wrong, and sanguine expectation of success under this conviction, prompted me to make the ascrifice and the exposure encountered.

Upon my arrival, I urged upon our counsel our reasons for a then immediate trial. The "new company" assumed the appearance of equal eageness and anxiety with myself to attain the same end. I attack no motive on their then appearent eagerness, but recur to the facts, leaving you and the public to determine them.

Upon a farther and faller understanding of the whole matter, after conference with our counsel, I secretained that a portion of those claiming to be purchasers under the sale through the invalid trast deed, were defendants, but, being non resident deed, were defendants, but, being non resident was the publication, except for unexpected voluntary attendance. The law also required that in order to our certain success, before the commencement of the term, notice to take depositions beyond the limits of that State must have been duly served on every defendant in the cause, they having first appeared in court by person, or attorney, etc. Very ample, abundant, and material testimony, to be had in the States of Louisians, Mississippi, Georgia, New York, and classwhere, could not, therefore, and had not, been taken by us, for want of time and a proper notice to make such as a proposition of produced them in court upon the trial.

Ignorant of these facts when I made the affidavit and continued the case, I did not, as a guar-Thursday afternoon, November 25th, at 3 o'clock.

sue. Very deep interest is felt, generally, through-at Texas, in the successful and rapid construc-on of this road. After we ascertain the necessiton of this road. After we ascertain the necessity of a continuance by the court of the action at law, the subject of a compromise was constantly spoken of, discussed, and urged by every citizen of prominence. Some members of the "new company" appeared then to entertain the same disposition, and a few of them contributed personal exertion to accomplish such result. Others of them, bowever I recreat to say seemed by their actions. however, I regret to say, seemed by their actions still to be controlled by the same spirit and design which planned and carried out the invalid execu tion of the deed of trust, and the pretended sale

Upon the table before me are all the papers and documents, in relation to a compromise, which has been effected, in view of the existing state of things. They are voluminous, and would consume much time in present reading. I present them for your service and inspection. It would gratify me could they have the thorough examination of every member of the company. They will doubtless receive proper extention from your will doubtless receive proper extention from your will doubtless receive proper attention from you, by your committees, or otherwise. In thus pre-senting them to you, it is incumbent on me to accompany them with the following statement:

When it appeared that our suit in court was to e continued, I determined to waive formality. accordingly addressed a communication to our opponents, L. P. Grant, and his associates, proposing a friendly arbitration by way of compromise. I therein even suggested the names of five respectable citizens of Harrison county, three of them personally unknown to me,—as a committee, whose duty it should be simply to settle and adjust such "points of difference" as should be jointly presented to them. This was met by much delay, and by correspondence unnecessary for me here to read. The "new company" finally acceded to the proposition; and we proceeded to the adjustment of our "points of difference"."

You will find the result in the subsequent award of that committee, qualified by the resolutions of your board of directors, under which I acted, lying before you on the table. I took the precaution, also, to place a copy of those resolutions in the hands of the committee at the time I executed the arbitration bond. All these documents, to with the correspondence upon the subject the at the arbitration bond. All these documents, to wit: the correspondence upon the subject, the propositions submitted by both parties to the committee, the award of that committee, and the preamble and resolutions of your board of directors, are here, and are subject to your investigation. They show, with precise accuracy, the terms and conditions of the compromise, and the positions relatively occupied by the contending parties. In view of their importance, I again arge upon you the necessity of their receiving from you a close examination and your deliberate rom you a close examination and your deliberate be passed upon and approved by that committee, who are charged with severe scrutiny of the same. The debt thus ascertained is to be provi-ded for in these several payments, to-wit: at three, five, and seven months from the 15th day of October, 1855. We "pay, then, only the actual debts created by our company prior to the day of the alleged sale, with one exception. Since our opponents took possession of your property, they have placed our iron upon five miles of road. This act entitles the company to two hundred and act entitles the company to two hundred and fifty-six thousand acres of land under the grants of Texas, it being thus done within the time re-Fexas, it being thus done within the time re-quired by that law. You will recollect we had graded the road bed, and we had bought and paid for the most or all of the cross-ties and the iron. The cross-ties were then lying along the track ready to be laid down. The iron was at Lake Caddo. As we receive the benefit of their laying down these cross-ties and iron, the expense of which does not exceed in amount about pense of which does not exceed in amount about $25,000, I think this a debt to be allowed, although occurring after the sale.

I am encouraged to hope that this total existing debt may fall short of the amount claimed, especially after its being scutinized by the committee. I did not deem it proper to descend to details and minutia. To have done so good have compared to the fact of the case of the second to details and minutia. would have embarrassed if not defeated the com-promise. It might have involved a settlement with each individual claimant. There are some judgments existing, amounting to about $20,000 Part of these are taken up, and we have obtained sixty days time in which to arrange the rest .-There seem also to be outstanding claims against the company of some $20,000 more of small debts, warrants on any of which, if sued out, might annoy the company.

It is but justice for me here to acknowledge not only, the services of our treasurer, Thos. H. Wiley, Esq., but his promptitude and liberality in advancing to the company from his own resources whatever money was absolutely necessary for the immediate wants of the company, at the or advan the immediate wants of the company, at the or-dinary interest of the State of Texas. To Edwin Post, Esq., also, we owe a grateful acknowledg. Post, Esq., also, we owe a grateful acknowledgment. He, too, out of his private means, has advanced money to meet the exigencies of the com-pany at the time required. Notwithstanding the most rigid economy has been practiced, expenses, growing out of attorney's fees, duties of agents, and incidental matters, of necessity were large. But for the assistance of these two gentlemen, and of W. & H. Burkhardt and Col. C. S. Todd, and some prominent citizens of Texas, I should have been driven to some sacrifice of your property, to sustain your rights. Unsolicited, and without the knowledge of the parties, I deem it right here to add, that the books and corporate records show that Mr. Post, and Stillman, Allen & Co., of New York, here assumed responsibilities and details. respectfully submit to your consideration the following views: 1. The first object, before all others, is to extri cate the company from every embarrassment, and extinguish the outstanding debts in their present situation. In doing so, care must be taken to provide ample protection and security for every dollar advanced by any one to this end. This will necessarily require the entire and prompt action of all. The intrinsic value of the stock, at the present period, at a moderate estimate, is about two dollars and fifty cents per share, after paying off all the liabilities of the company herein be-fore referred to. Upon the completion of the road to the extent of fifty miles, the stock will be worth about eighty per cent., or $4 upon the $5 paid in. Upon the completion of the road to the extent of seventy-five miles, (which should be accomplished by the first of January, A. D., 1860). the stock will be worth par. All of these calculations are made without reference to any est mate of the rights and franchises of the con pany, which are valued by reasonable men as worth millions of dollars. The indebtedness of the company, as I have stated, is about $500,000 It does not exceed it. The amount actually needed for the time is for the payment of the debt of $827,000, while at the present, independent your rights and franchises, your actual property, relieved of this indebtedness, is, at at a fair estimated the state of the mate, worth not less than two millions of dollars

I consider the following a nearly, if not quite

Your entire debt, as I have stated does not ex ceed $500,000. I believe the fifty cent loan pro-posed, if generally carried out, may realize means whereby this immediate debt may be extinguished. If the sum of $200,000 be raised by this con pany, I can so extricate your means, now tied up as will complete the payment required. If, i your judgment, a doubt remains, it is sincerel trusted your interest, your energy, and your united wisdom, will plan out and mature immediate means. If this amount be raised, and your property extricated from all embarrassment, the State loan granted you, upon the 1st and 2d sections of 25 miles each, will, it is believed, accomplish the completion of the next section of 25 miles of your road, giving the company 50 miles of road and 572,000 acres of land. Had I, when I left Texas to come here, possessed the means for the extin-guishment of this debt of $327,000, I could easily have placed five hundred hands upon the farther construction of the road, under an agreement treceive the State loan as pay thereof.

2. I recommend the immediate construction of fifty miles more of road, as soon as the $327. debt is provided for. The munificence of Texas will afford sufficient means therefor, without imposing any farther burthen upon us, at present. It can be done within 12 months after you obtain

It can be done within 12 months after you obtain possession of your road.

3. There is property belonging to your company, other than that granted by Texas. I recommend sale or disposition thereof, and the appropriation to existing necessities. All operations and investments, which do not go to construct the road, are held to be wrong in policy.—But in so doing, I would caution you against any measure calculated hereafter unnecessarily to encumber the road and its franchises, as well as cumber the road and its franchises, as well as hasty or imprudent sales of lands granted you by the State of Texas. These are the proper basis for the construction of the road, and if built must add daily and vastly to the material and sale

4. I recommend a reduction of the stock to grade equivalent to the actual value of the estate of the company, be the same real, personal, or 22,200 to 41,964 46 mixed, upon the completion of fifty miles of the 12,852 84 road. Here let me remark that much has been 17,841 65 said of heretofore fraudulent issues of stock to an enormous extent. This has been the great catch-word and pretence of our opponents. The facts, word and pretence of our opponents. The however, I state as I have received them. The official records of the company show that E. Post, Esq., in vindication of himself and associates in the New York office of the company, in December, 1857, demanded from the principal office in New Orleans a thorough fice in New Orleans a thorough investigation to these charges. One examination was had which lasted many days. The result is thus set forth in the report of your then President, Geo. S. Yerger, 1,150 06 Esq., presented December, 1857, to and unantomously adopted by the directors and stockholders: Fees due lawyers.

McDonnell, Mills & Co. 1857: "Resolved, that the Board of Directors confirms the report of the investigating committee and concurs in the opinion of said committee as therein expressed, that although errors of judg mittee in New York, no frauds have been committed by said executive committee in the issue of the stock of this company." The directors there present were Geo. S. Yerger, President, Richard T. Archer, M. J. Hail, Edwin Post, A. M. Holbrook, C. S. Todd, T. Butler King, and W. S. Scott. Dr. J. Taylor, J. Pinckney Henderson, J. J. Persons, and W. P. Sanders were represented by proxy.—Nothwithstanding this, and apparently with a view to influence the public mind in Texas and elsewhere, and withdraw attention from the designs they were carrying out against your intereisewhere, and withdraw attention from the designs they were carrying out against your interests, these wholesale charges were again and again reiterated by your opponents—even by some who had made the ezamination and published the foregoing announcement to the world. Accordingly, your Board of Directors, in July 1858, requested all stockholders to forward their certificates of technical technical and the stockholders are the same technical technical technical technical and the same technical technica stock in the office at Marshall, Texas, so that the also might examine into these allegations of fraud. If there be such fraud, it must exist in one or two modes, either by issuance of duplicate shares of stock certificates as numbered, or by issuance of certificates not entered on the books of the com-

In conformity with this request, a careful en amination has been made of several hundred certificates, which have been handed in from all quarters of the Union. The result, so far, has been perfectly satisfactory, and as yet no trace of fraud is discoverable. As there is no power to compel the production of stock certificates, for the purpose of continuing this test, beyond the voluntary act of the stockholders themselves, it is the interest and days of all the hear their certificates. the interest and duty of all to have their certificates scrutinized by the proper officers at Mar We urge this, as we consider it the inter est as well as the duty of all parties to aid in the detection and exposure of fraud wherever it may be found to exist. This course will put to rest the imputations originating with the wicked, and perpetuated by the idle, the mischievous, or the ignorant. rant. From every thing thus far ascertained the while charge seems utterly groundless.

As the first step towards taking this ground o strength, I reiterate my recommendation that the stock be reduced to a grade commensurate with the actual value of the estate of the company in possession after the completion of the next section of the manual value of the desired of the completion of the next section of the manual value of the desired of the completion of the next section of t ion of 25 miles of road.

To aid still farther in giving tone, and perma-ence, and strength to the company, I would urther respectfully suggest to your consideration the propriety of opening books for a farther sub scription of such reduced stock in the State of Texas. From what I have narrated, confidence has heretofore been wanting there. Your present action may inspire it. The solid and reflecting portion of the citizens of that State; those whose weight of character and social standing are the weight of character and social standing are the exponents of popular will, and the chief support to all such enterprises, have refused hereto fore to connect themselves with mere speculators and place their property at their mercy. When, however, they see your united energy, promptness, and good faith, gladly will they unite with you in this enterprise, so near and dear to them in their hearts and homes. They will strengthen the policy of the State in your favor, the munificence of which has been the object of speculation and wrong amongst some of your opponents. They will encourage immigration to your lands, and extend a hearty welcome to the stranger. They will reader material aid also in constructing your road, hearty welcome to the stranger. They will render material aid also in constructing your road, and even by personal donations of land and services, in addition to the patriotic grants already afforded by Texas. From personal observation there, I am sanguine that the solid, substantial, and paying men of that State, upon the adoption of a judicious policy, will take part with you to the extent of at least five hundred thousand dollars, and I am warranted in believing that large donations of lands will be made by individuals to the company, equal in value to your existing donations of lands will be made by individuals to the company, equal in value to your existing stock, when they see the energy of your present meeting. It is the value of your rights, in addition to your property, etc., that has prompted others wrongfully to endeavor to obtain them.—
Will you not protect them?

6. Experience demonstrates with unerring force that a radical change ought to be effected in our future management, and even our organization.

I have directed and forwarded letters to each successive president, my predecessors, requesting them to furnish all information as to every transaction of their respective administrations. Let each stand upon his own acts, and explain fully his own transactions and policy. So far as we have yet ascertained, all preceding reports are nearly correct which have been given by this company to the public; whether wise or not, we leave each to explain and the public to determine. This request, at the same time, will afford each the opportunity to reply to any charges which rumor or malevolence may have originated. Compliance, as yet, has not been made, nor has there as yet been sufficient time therefor.

penses amounted to $2,600,000, or thereabout. Ours through Indian tribes, only came to about $3,100,-000, yet the survey was of much greater extent. One dollar then expended was of necessity of the importance that a few cents now could possibly be. Our situation now requires strict economy and watchful care.

In your present action, caution is urged upon you to select officers and agents capable, prompt, and energetic, and, as far as possible, from the working men of the country. Their every effort of mind will be wanted. Their capacity and endurance will be indispensable. The previous difficulties of the company, to which I have alluded, clearly indicate the necessity of a radical change in its future management. I also believe that upon completion of the payments named in the compromise, you insure the termination of any difficulty between the State of Texas and your company, irrespective of any dependence upon legal rights. I have assurances from the people of Texas, of every position in society, even the watchful care. of Texas, of every position in society, even the highest in influence, that this result will be immediate. Before, however, this was ascertained, to guard your rights at every point, I caused to be prepared by eminent counsel their professional opinions, which (even at the worst) were in your

Reflection would indicate some important results from what has been said:

1. There is a route from Memphis to El Paso, having privileges similar to, but not interfering with our own. Common interest must and will, the heapfits of each in doubtless, concentrate all the benefits of each in our one great enterprise.

2. As I stated in my commencement, an interoceanic railway is the great measure of policy of our national government. To obtain military ad-vantages, postal benefits, and the promotion of commerce, government must aid some route. 3. While it is true we can complete our route ourselves, government aid can greatly expedite ts completion, and time is money. Here let me call your attention to an important matter, not generally considered.

The State of Louisiana has in process of construction her New Orleans and Opelousas route.

so with Kentucky, Arkansas, Illinois, and Missouri. To canvass all these advantages would exceed our limits. Each State, for its own imme-diate and direct benefit, could well afford to build our road without cost to us, and independent of other resources from the national government, to which we believe we have a just right to look for

Through its immense length, beautiful and extensive cities have grown up, and their energetic inhabitants for local considerations, each emand an outlet by railway to the Pacific. offer no impediment to others. We have under taken one task to complete 800 miles of road where uninterupted travel can be always maintained. It is not difficult to show their common interest with us in all uniting by branches with the great main stem we have commenced. The survey of the Iron Mountain road, shows a practicable route joining ours at Fulton, Arkansas. The south-west brauch of the Pacific road of Missouri, s the present track of the overland mail to our very line of road. These open to us the iron and commerce of Missouri. These return to her the trade of Texas, the metals of Arizonia, and the trade of Texas, the metals of Arizonia, and the speediest communication with San Francisco.—And so we may say of the routes from Cairo, Memphis, Gaines Landing, Vicksburg, and New Orleans. We advocate the policy of government aid to all these roads.

There will be business enough for all, and more than all can do. While, then, we seriously urge the fact that our Western and Southern States are interested respectively in such degree as to conterested respectively in such degree as to contribute generously to our enterprise, the aid mu-tually rendered by us to the national government, and by them to us is a mere matter of justice, resulting in speedier benefit to both.

Before concluding my remarks, I feel it due to call your attention to the noble patriotism, which, unsolicited, has induced the press of your country to advocate our great cause. I tender them my hearty thanks, and doubt not, that a responsive Amen will thrill through your own hearts. To insure concert, a respectful invitation has been addressed to our western cities and railroad companies to counsel and co-operate with us at proper measures to co-operate with them and oth ers, and bring to the attention of gevernment everything connected herewith. The epidemic prevented the assembling of any meeting at New Orleans, where, from its proximiy to our road, more personal examination might be had and greater local interests be involved.—

In addition, permit me to remark that our stockholders in that city have even been foremost in generosity towards our enterprize, and glad would we have been to have visited them during the autumn and before now.

All that remains is for you now to company

All that remains is for you now to commer an energetic course on most substantial basis.—

A new organization should be had. In electing officers I would suggest the selecting of men whose character and ability will prove a future guaranty of the success of the enterprize. Your hard work is not yet over. It has scarcely begun. The future will demand as much, if not more, energy than the past. You will be obliged to have gentlemen of discretion on the very sail of Texas to than the past. Tou will be obliged to have gentlemen of discretion on the very soil of Texas, to guard your interest at every point.

Heartily do I thank you, gentlemen, for the trust you have reposed in me in our late trying difficulties. I now surrender it to you again, conscious of effort to do right, and trusting in your approbation of what has so far been accomplished. If now you proper trust to yourselves. ed. If now you prove true to yourselves, you will have accomplished as great an enterprise as the world has entertained. The eye of the whole nation is upon you. JEPTHA FOWLKES, Pres't. Southern Pacific R. R. Company.

Mr. Richardson, of Tenn., moved the appointment by the chairman of a business committee to whom the report of Pres't Fowlkes should b referred. The following persons were appointed on this committee, viz: R. B. Richardson and W. G. Brownlow, of Tenn.; Jas. Shannon, of Mo.; M. F. Crigler, of Ohio; Jno. H. Harney, F. Gorin L. Desha and D. P. Henderson, of Ky., and Hon Jeremiah Morton, of Va.

On motion of Col. Post, of N. Y., the report of Pres't Fowlkes was referred to the business committee, with instructions to report thereon .-Prest. Morton said that, by request, he would state that many certificates, which had been sent to the office at Marshall, Texas, for examination, had not been returned to the owners, as they were yet in process of examination. Several hundred had been examined, and not one was found to be a fraudulent issue. The enemies of the road were the ones who circulated the report of bogus stock, so as to crush the road. But he had an abiding faith that no bogus stock existed. The books showed that there is in all $60,000,000 of stock, which is equal to $3,000,000 in money .-Five dollars now represents shares of $100, which causes many to think it a "fancy stock." He hoped when 50 miles of the road were built the 7 25. stock would be brought down to its intrinsic value. He believed in 10 years there would be no such stock in the country. Mr. Fisk said at the call of officers he sent his certificates of stock last May to the care of Mr. Laurason, of New Orleans, but it had never been returned. Others were in the same fix. He hoped the meeting would devise some means to have these certificates restored to the owners .-He had paid the last dime due on the stocks in

The remarks of Mr. Fisk induced President Shannon, of Missouri, to call upon Rev. W. G. Brownlow, of Tennessee, to relate his experience on this subject. Mr. Brownlow rose and responded that he was unable to speak, as he was laboring under an affliction of the throat, and had been since July. It wasn't with him as it once was He had seen the time when he would have felt mortified if he hadn't been heard a mile distinctly, and for five hours at a time. [Applause.] In reference to the subject, he would only say that he had been an agent in Tennessee for the road, and in this capacity sent money and checks to Laurason, late secretary of the road, at New Orleans. About $700, it was reported, never come to hand. "At least, Laurason so wrote to me," said Mr. Brownlow. Now, one of his Texas friends related an anecdote in the presence of an acquaintance of mine, about Par son Brownlow and the Tennessee conference. He referred to the letter in which the anecdote was written, and in which I also sent $200. This

Some of the enemy in Texas had represented there were a thousand millions of the stock, and others there were $300,000,000 of it, and these were some of the means used to crush the road. Of the certificates examined not one was found fraudulent, and he was confident there was no

Col. Post, of N. Y., said if frauds had been perpetrated, he must be the person guilty, as all of the certificates passed under his hand. But it was untrue there was a false issue of stock. He here explained how stock is issued, etc., and showed if there had been fraud it could not have escaped detection these days. If those who held ertificates felt unsafe, he advised them to send them to the office at Marshall for examination. On motion of Col. Gorin, the report of President

Fowlkes was ordered to be published in the Louisville Courier, Democrat and Journal. The meeting then adjourned to half past six in the evening.

EVENING SESSION. Pursuant to adjournment in the afternoon, the onvention re-assembled at the Masonic Temple at half past six in the evening. The hall was again filled to overflowing. There were not less than 500 stockholders and representatives of stockholders present.

Col. Edw in Post, of New York, was called to the chair, and presided during the evening. On motion of Hon. Jeremiah Morton, of Virginia, the stockholders present were directed to report to the secretary the number of shares repesented in the convention.

At the suggestion of Elder D. P. Henderson, the business committee, to whom the report of President Fowlkes and the accompanying documents had been referred at the afternoon session were allowed to report their stock first, so as to enable them to hold a separate meeting. Upon a report being made of the number of hares represented in the convention, and a summing up of the same, it was found that 412,000 shares were represented by the owners and by proxy.

A resolution was offered levying a tax of fifty cents on each share of stock to raise a fund to neet the pressing liabilities of the company, acording to the terms of the compromise effected by President Fowlkes. It was thought more proer, however, to defer action upon the resolution, until the report of the president was laid before each stockholder, in a printed form. The resolution was withdrawn till the next meeting.

The convention then adjourned to meet again Saturday morning, at 9 o'clock, in the same hall.

[Correspondence of the Louisville Courier.] Hon. Beriah Magoffin-Hon. J. H. Jewett-A Correction. ELIZABETHTOWN, Nov. 22, 1858.

Editors Louisville Courier: A few days ago the ollowing article apgeared in the columns of your of the ten counties composing the fifth congressional istrict, six have instructed their delegates to vote for Ion. Beriah Magoffin for Governor. These are Anderon, Hardin, Marion, Mercer, Spencer, and Washington. The remaining four counties are Bullitt, Larue, Meade, and Nelson. The probability is that Hon. J. H. Jowett will influence similar meetings in these four counties. will influence similar meetings in these four countles so as to have the vote of his district cast as an unit for Ma-goffin in the convention.

We do not for a moment doubt that Hon. J. H. Jewett desires Mr. Magoffin to be our next Governor, yet the Democrats of Hardin were, nevertheless, surprised at the contents of the paragraph quoted. It is not our custom to consult the ishes of any particular man as to the proprie wishes of any particular man as to the propriety of our political action, and we are not aware that Hon. J. H. Jewett could control our choice of a candidate for any State or county office, if he should attempt it. It was not the influence of Mr. J. that secured Mr. Magoffin the recommendation he received from this county. We have, I believe, so far, acted without his dictation, or inquiry as to his preferences.

The indorsement of Mr. Magoffin by our county meeting was a hearty and voluntary tribute to his eminent personal worth, and the many and valu-able services he has rendered his party. He has among us a large circle of friends and admirers, and, in our opinion, holds as high and firm a place in the affections and esteem of the Democracy of the fifth congressional district as any man in it. If, on the 8th of January next, in the State convention, the counties of this district vote an unit for him, it is to his own wide and merited popularity, and not to the influence of any one man, he will be indebted for that support. Mr. Magoffin has ever been at the command of his party. In his late race for Lieut. Governor the struggle was believed to be hopeless, yet that did not abate the ardor and energy of his efforts in the advocacy of the principles of his party. He fought that battle gallantly, against an opposiand though defeated, achieved for himself great hours. He has been a true soldier in the field, having done hard service in the march and in the fight, yet he has not worn the laurels of office.— In the cause of Democracy his time and talents have been taxed, yet he has never enjoyed, a their hands, the honors of official position. His ecord is unchallenged-and, personally, he bears record is unchallenged—and, personally, he bears nature's signet of a gentleman. The services he has, with self-sacrificing devotion, rendered his party will bear comparison with those of any, and they merit reward. We owe him a debt of gratitude for all this and think new in the six of gratithey merit reward. We owe thin a document tude for all this, and think now is the time to nav it.

Very truly,

Z.

FOUND DEAD-NAME UNKNOWN.-On Wednes lay, the 20th of October, Mr. Silas Smith found a man lying dead upon the Louisville Turnpike, about six miles from this place.

He had on his person a note dated Perrysburg, Sept. 2, 58, and signed John Murray, with A. E. Spafford as witness. This note is for $100. The note is in the possession of Mr. Smith, and will be given up to the proper owners when called for.—Elizabethtown Democrat.

The exhibition of imports and exports for The exhibition of imports and exports for the year ending September 30th, is very favorable, showing that the country is paying off foreign debts, diminishing the consumption of foreign goods, and husbanding its resources. After another year of this process, importations, under the present tariff, will be large enough to afford as much revenue as we shall need.

THE RIVER during the past 48 hours has been re ceding very slowly—but a little over an inch at the head of the falls, with four feet six inches in the canal. This is equal to nearly six feet on Portland and Flint island bars, but along the lower Ohio there is much less water. The weather which has been hanging over us so gloomy, rainy, and lowering all the month, all at once cleared off yesterday, and the sun shone out brightly for a space of an hour or more. It then clouded over again, and we may have more rain

At Pittsburgh, yesterday, the river had risen At Pittsburgh, yesterday, the river had risen a few inches, with a slight hope of more, but at Cincinnati it was slowly receding.

The exact stage of water vesterday along the lower Ohio, we obtain through a special dispatch from Evansville, from J. F. Leyden, Esq., clerk of the E. H. Fairchild. She passed Evansville the evening previous, finding four feet eight inches water on Scuffletown bar, and passed the Southerner agrand at French Lebad.

erner aground at French Island.

The E. H. Fairchild leaves Cairo for New Or-leans this evening, on the arrival of the cars. The famous High Flyer, from New Orleans, was at Memphis Thursday, on her way to this port. She is full freighted, including 150 tons of roceries for Cincinnati.

The High Flyer is due to-morrow night. The High river is due to horrow night.

Two new boats, the Eleanor and the Telegram, arrived here yesterday from Cincinnati, bound for Red river. They are stern-wheelers, one with a new hull and an old cabin, and the other presumed to be all made up of oak and pine boards, with a good dab of paint outside, including a red streak up har now or new. ng a red streak up her nose, or prew.

Four flats laden with salt are aground of Gunpowder bar, where a pig iron boat went down the other day. The pig iron has been nearly all taken out, and the boat in a fair way to float. THE JOHN RAINE-BIG TRIP.-The splendid ightning Line packet John Raine, as we learn b bighting Line packet John Kaine, as we learn by special dispatch from Capt. Palacao, the clerk, was at Paducah Thursday. She had a heavy freight from New Orleans, including 300 tons for Nashville. This she discharged at Paducah. The John Raine is due to-night, and returns to New Orleans Tuesday evening, sure, from Port-

Thanks to W. Irwin, assistant clerk of the M. Patton No. 2, from Tennessee river, for a ifest. She had a good lot of cotton, and other reight.

The John Tompkins, a very staunch boat, as well as light one, is advertised for Cairo and Memphis this evening. She starts from Portland, in charge of Capt. Sutton, with Geo. Twomey in e clerk's office.

The McLellan, as we learn by letter from W. H. Steele, the clerk, was at Paducah Wednes lay, and would go on the ways the next day. She ill be off in time to reach this port, and return Memphis Monday, with the mail. If any of our steamboat friends are in rant of the best mince meat they ever eat, we efer them to the establishment on Wall street,

The gallant Woodford, from New Orleans as at Memphis yesterday. She is due Monday, and returns to New Orleans on Wednesday next. DIANA FOR NEW ORLEANS To-DAY .- The mag DIANA FOR NEW URLEANS TO-DAY.—The mag-ificent packet, Diana, takes her departure to New Irleans this evening. She casts loose from her tharf at Portland, at 4 o'clock, and we would ad-ise passengers to register their names early, as er staterooms were nearly all engaged yesterday The Diana is one of the best constructed, most comfortable, and complete passenger packets ever built, and all her officers are celebrated for their ttentions, care, and courtesy. The statero are large, and as completely furnished as any room in a hotel, while her fare will be all that the greatest epicure could desire, as no expense has been spared to make her the most desirable pas-senger packet in the south west. The Diana is chiefly owned by Capt. E. T. Stureon, her commander, who is celebrated for his are and skill, as well as the admirable discipline f his boat, making all feel at home, and as safe and comfortable as when at home. She takes no reight, owing to the low stage of the river, and passengers can feel assured of going along safe and without detention. The clerk, O. L. Smith will take a real pleasure in attending to passen gers, and will see that they are promptly attended

The bully Diamond, Capt. W. R. Hollcroft from New Orleans, passed Evansville on Thursday, and was due last night. She is advertised to irect to New Orleans this evening FOR CAIRO DIRECT.-The John Gault, the star of e low water fleet, as well as most popular of the ur mer packets, starts for Cairo, direct, this eve-ing.
